◆ Spiritual direction encourages the seeker to become more keenly aware of how God is present and at work. You may seek direction as you sense a call to something deeper, something more. You may desire a deeper relationship with God or feel the need for a companion on the journey to walk with you.

Spiritual directors are available at Lial Renewal Center to listen with you to the Holy Spirit, ask reflective questions, point out resources, assist with roadblocks, and celebrate breakthroughs. These directors have received extensive training and formation in spiritual direction and come with various pastoral and educational experiences. To make an appointment or to learn more about our directors, please contact Lial Renewal Center.

Suggested offering: $30 - $50 per hour

◆ BE-Days are opportunities to take a day away to be attentive, be creative, be quiet in the open spaces at Lial Renewal Center. Pack a lunch, take a walk, bring a book, sit by the lake or the warmth of a fire, kneel before the Blessed Sacrament, write your musings or draw what you see within or around you. Let the day unfold and leave renewed.

Please call ahead, and a staff member will be waiting to greet you.

Suggested offering: $15

◆ Daytime meeting spaces allow parish staff or group members to get away during the work week for strategic planning, team-building, ministry formation or prayer and reflection... together. Groups bring their own food and set their own agenda. Meeting rooms for 6 to 96 persons are available, all within view of the unfolding beauty of the season.

Rental fees starting at $80
